

Magical Manado

5th to 11th January 2007

The LivingSeas Team is diving regional again!

Interested in 'muck' diving, pigmy seahorse? Come join us to Manado!!

If you have missed out February 2007 CNY Manado trip, here is your chance not to miss it again in 2007.

Diving in North Sulawesi

A dominating volcanic landscape creates a unique backdrop for you to discover North Sulawesi, one of the world's best yet least known dive destinations. The year-round diving here is all about amazing variety and exotic surroundings. The deep seas give excellent average visibility (25m).

They are also home to many unusual species, for example the prehistoric fish "coelacanth" as well as some household names: reef-shark, turtles, eagle rays, napoleon wrasse, even dugong and orca! The majority of sites are conveniently accessed within one hour from your hotel and yet North Sulawesi's remote location means that the sites are never crowded with other divers.
